

Static Electricity Discussion Questions

How small do the paper particles have to be before they will jump to the comb?

Will other particles become attracted to the comb?

Does the material of the comb matter?

How long will the static charge hold?

What happens to the paper when the charge is gone?